To Whom It May Concern,

RE: Dameyon Bonson

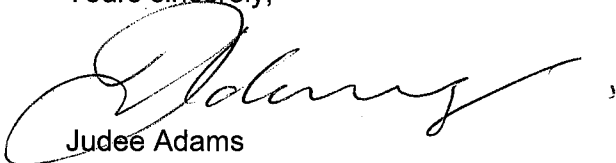

Over the past twelve months Dameyon has been proactively involved in the Close the Gap campaign through he is own individual endeavors and as a volunteer activist with Oxfam Australia.

His work with Oxfam Australia has been diverse and his contribution has greatly assisted in the success of the Close the Gap campaign in South Australia.

He has promoted and raised awareness of the issues of the campaign at public events such as the Don Dunstan Human Rights Oration, the Crowded House Concert and WOMADelaide, assisted in the development of a variety of campaign strategies and has brought greater understanding and knowledge by sharing his story through radio interviews. Dameyon has also been pivotal in gaining the support of both the Adelaide Crows and the Sturt Football Club and creating strong links with local Aboriginal players.

A part from his work with Close the Gap campaign, Dameyon has been a strong Aboriginal advocate in creating understanding and awareness on office ways of working and assisting in developing better work practices.

Yours sincerely,

Judee Adams
